This June 5, 2007 the SYMC of New York Community will continue the celebration of the 25th anniversary of Gurumayi Chidvilasananda as the Siddha Yoga Guru with a Global Audio Satsang. In this satsang we'll further explore the study focus Gurumayi has given us for this year—to study, practice, assimilate, and implement the teachings in her book Sadhana of the Heart.

The title of the Audio Satsang is

The Unfolding of the Awakened Shakti

In this satsang we'll study a teaching from Sadhana of the Heart about how the awakened shakti unfolds through our sincere effort. We'll hear from fellow Siddha Yoga students about their experiences of shaktipat. Then together, we'll contemplate how our sincere self-effort contributes to the unfolding of the awakened Kundalini Shakti. We will also chant and meditate.

Join Siddha Yoga meditation teacher Swami Indirananda and other Siddha Yoga students for this satsang, which will take place June 5 at the Siddha Yoga Meditation Center of New York (230 West 29th Street), and via audio webcast. In preparation for this satsang, please read the chapter "Be Filled with Enthusiasm and Sing God's Glory" in Sadhana of the Heart.

Participation

- At the Siddha Yoga Meditation Center of New York: Please register Tuesday Nights before and after satsang or contact the Siddha Yoga Meditation Ashram of New York for time, and registration details. You can also check the list of participating Siddha Yoga centers worldwide on the Siddha Yoga Website.
- By audio webcast in your home: Register here. The webcast rate is US $20 worldwide. Please note: registration is available in advance of the satsang. During the satsang, participants will be invited to share their insights and discoveries with each other. As some of the exercises will be interactive, webcast participants are encouraged, if possible, to participate with at least one other registered participant.

Note: This audio webcast is available in English only.
